

College of Asia Pacific

CAP Online with University of Hawai'i 8/19, 26, 9/2, 9, 16, 23, 30/2022 (7-Days Intensive Program)

About CAP

CAP is a collaborative education program among Japanese and international students based on PBL (Problem-Based Learning) and TBL (Team-Based Learning) provided by International Student Center at Kyushu University.

Eligibility

- ◆ Over 18 years of age.
- ◆ Have a strong academic record.
- ◆ Fluent in the English language for academic purposes
Non-native speaker of English must hold a TOEFL score of 460 or higher (or the equivalent).

Program Features

- ◆ Live sessions by University of Hawai'i's lecturers.
*Session topics for the past program (2021): Japanese American Historical and Contemporary Experiences in Hawai'i / The Constructions of Asians and Asia in American Cinema and more
- ◆ Live discussion forums with international students.

Program Period

8/19, 26, 9/2, 9, 16, 23, 30 /2022
* 7-days 8:40am-2:30pm (JST)

Program Fee

Approx. JPY120,000

*subject to change due to exchange rate fluctuations.
The fee includes the Kyushu University tuition fee for 2 credits and program operation fee for University of Hawaii.

Participants

Max. 25

Application

Zoom

Language

English

Registration Deadline

June 3, 2022 5pm(JST)

Contact

CAP Office, International Student Center, Kyushu University

✉ cap-isc@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp

<https://rcks.kyushu-u.ac.jp/cap/>

Apply here

🔍 College of Asia Pacific

Search

